Director of Onshore Renewables Description Be the energy behind change. Join ABL Group. ABL Group is a leading global independent energy and marine consultant working in energy and oceans to de-risk and drive the energy transition across the renewables, maritime, and oil and gas sectors, offering the deepest pool of expertise across marine and engineering disciplines in more than 300 locations globally. At ABL, we are more than just technical consultants - our global teams of experts are passionate about creating a sustainable world. Working with us will allow you to work in a dynamic environment, on various exciting renewable energy projects, with top-quality people on unique projects and be part of an exciting journey of rapid growth. The Senior Consultant is a critical and global role for ABL with its various interests in renewables. This candidate will be a vital member of the delivery teams and take increasing responsibility within the business, perhaps by leading a market segment or service line. This role will support one of the onshore renewables technology lines (Onshore Wind, Solar, Energy Storage) and will have a primary connection to one technology but will support all teams as required.

What you will be doing:

The successful candidate will manage various renewables projects and support the positioning of ABL Group as the global renewables advisor of choice. The incumbent will work within teams of multi-disciplined project managers, engineers, analysts, and specialists, developing and working with our global capability. The successful candidate will share a collective responsibility for meeting our ambitious business growth objective to double our renewables activity by 2025. The successful candidate will report to the Head of Technology (Onshore Wind, Solar, Energy Storage) but, will operate autonomously. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to : Working as part of either the Onshore Wind, Solar or Energy Storage teams. Delivering projects [GW1] to a high standard, to ensure the utmost satisfaction of our clients and an outstanding quality of deliverables, including: due diligence for lenders, investors, vendors, etc. Supporting developers and owners through design, procurement and construction phases. And services such as energy yield assessment, performance analysis, etc. Leading proposal writing, supporting business development activities and representing ABL. Managing the project's key performance indicators including budgets. Managing project teams to ensure optimal delivery of projects. Support the positive development of our people through mentoring, training, etc. Develop ABL's suite of renewables products to lead in new markets and new (associated) technologies, building new systems through R D to give ABL a competitive advantage. Collaborate with, support and evolve with other businesses, teams and staff in the ABL Group, networking at all levels within the company, as well as with external bodies and acting as a representative of ABL at industry conferences, seminars, events, etc. Ensuring projects operate by ABL's high health, safety and environmental policies and procedures to guarantee the safety and well-being of staff, sub-contractors and any other third parties who may be impacted by our work. Ensure project work and technical quality standards are maintained through QA/QC processes, and with a commitment to driving continuous improvement internally. This role will be based in London/Brighton or one of our overseas offices, candidate must have the right to live and work in the country of application, Local and international travel may be required. Hours are flexible (subject to the above) but a minimum of 40 hours per week. No recruiters or agencies will be considered unless pre-authorised; direct applications only. What we are looking for. The successful candidate will demonstrate the following qualifications and experience: Minimum of 5 years of experience and passion for onshore wind, solar or energy storage. Qualified to at least Bachelor's or Master's degree level in Engineering or a relevant discipline. A successful track record of project management and managing multi-disciplinary teams. Functional knowledge of how renewable projects are developed, constructed and operated. A practical understanding of the economics of renewable energy projects, and the mechanisms by which they are financed. Strong technical knowledge including players, markets, technology, warranties, etc. Key characteristics include strong interpersonal skills, self-awareness, attention to detail, length of character, pragmatism and flexibility. Working knowledge of MS Office is mandatory. Excellent communication, report writing skills and oral/written English. Additionally, the following would be favourable: Multi-cultural and language experiences and capabilities. Experience working in a consulting environment / with client management responsibility. Experience with relevant software (PVsyst, WindPro, WindFarmer, etc.). Experience as Independent Engineer and/or Owner's Engineer. Experience acting as a team leader. Experience on other sides of a project (developer, owner, financier, etc.). Hold Chartered Engineer status, or be working towards it. What is in it for you? ABL ensures that every employee has the opportunity to learn and progress quickly - we have implemented a system to ensure that everyone could achieve swift on-the-job learning. The successful candidate will work with our globally based dynamic teams. We offer ample opportunities to the right candidates to grow in their role. We offer a competitive benefits package, and a flexible, exciting, and supportive working environment. The successful candidate will join the regional management team and share responsibility for meeting our ambitious growth objectives in the rapidly growing renewables business. Our team members and colleagues worldwide will support you to be part of the exciting movement in the dynamic wind industry. You can learn more about our team and what we do here: <https://abl-group.com/> Join us and grow with us. We will be conducting interviews continuously and reserve the right to take down the advert when we have found the right candidate.
